
SUBTLE AND CUNNING CRIME, IF ONE, SAYS HARRIS OF RICH WOMAN'S DEATH.

If this is a case of suicide it was certainly attended by most unusual and remarkable circumstances. If Mrs. Chase was the victim of foul play the crime was surely the most subtly and cunningly performed of any one on the calendar.—CHIEF OF POLICE HARRIS.

dent Roosevelt to become Secretary of the Treasury, will be sustained because he was chairman of the Republican National Committee.

The element in that campaign, Assistant Postmaster General Hittcock, who acted as secretary, will also be called as a witness. Mr. Hittcock can tell from where all contributions came, and in what manner they reached the committee of which Mr. Corbett was the head.

Will Corbett Retraction.

Attorney General Julius Mayer has arrived in this city from Marquette Lake, and at once interested the members of the Armstrong committee concerning the New York Life revelations. It is certain that he will begin action to compel the restitution of the $100,000 campaign fund contribution, and it is said he will take the case to the Supreme Court if necessary.

That is a question I cannot well answer until I have an opportunity of investigation. The matter is one that is engaging and will continue to engage my earnest attention. For several weeks I have been generally understood to be in the city, and I have been in the city for several weeks.

Mr. Hittcock, to be placed in the position of a stand and questioned by Charles J. Hittcock before the insurance investigation committee he will probably be asked about the $100,000 contribution of the company of the Mutual Life and one of its trustees.

Probable Hamilton's $100,000.

According to a report he was sent about some time ago by his father, and given general supervisory powers over the Bureau agents. As a result of his work there it is said that he received a commission from the company of the Mutual Life and one of its trustees.

FORMER HEAD OF BANKRUPT COMPANY SUE

Trustee Alleges Official Managed Finances in Own Interest.

NOW SEEKS ACCOUNTING

LYNN, Sept. 18.—Sue has been brought by Percy A. Atherton, trustee in bankruptcy of the Eastern Chiropractic Company, against Henry P. Emerson, who was president, treasurer and director of the company, in the Supreme Court, seeking by an accounting to recover from him some $100,000 which he is said to have received from the company's transactions with the company.

Voting Trust Alleged.

The company was organized in 1902 as the result of a vote of the stockholders which had been engaged in the year and a half before. There were 11,000 shares of stock, of which Mr. Emerson owned 10,000.

It is alleged that a voting trust was formed in March, 1904, and that the company was then controlled by the trust. The trust was said to have been formed for the purpose of controlling the company's affairs.

It is further alleged that Emerson personally purchased the accounts of two creditors of the corporation at a discount, and that he then sold them at a profit to the company.

The most important testimony was by Arthur Hodges of Boston. When seen by a reporter Mr. Hodges said that, in his opinion, the car was taking a curve at such a terrific rate of speed that the driver, in the excitement of the moment, lost control of the car.

examined that she knew a woman who said Mrs. Chase feared a conspiracy to take her life.

Deputy Neal has caused diligent search for this woman, all on an oval, she was seen on Wednesday night, the very night that Mrs. Chase died. She has not been seen in Boston since, and there is no word of her whereabouts.

The police regard this woman as one of the most important witnesses in the case. They think her presence and testimony would be of great assistance in solving the police mystery.

They would like to know where she got the information that there was a plot to kill Mrs. Chase, under what circumstances Mrs. Chase told her, if she did tell, and whether or not the dead woman mentioned any names when she said that there was a conspiracy against her.

POISON TRACES GONE?

Whether or not the autopsy will reveal anything of importance is questionable. The woman suffered three days before she died and has now been dead five days. Natural chemical changes would have taken place in the body of the woman.

Dr. Chase said the prescription had been made out five years ago. The woman was a patient of his for many years. He said that he had never seen the woman since she died.

THREE MEN PLAYS

Ex-Champion Is Gentleman, Blacksmith, Hero, Lover and Pugilist All in One and Especially Has to Be Johnny-on-the-Spot to Save the Situation Here and Often.

Bob Fitzsimmons was a four-round bout with the drama at the Grand Opera House last night.

An audience that jammed the theatre from the front of the floor to the back of the gallery cheered and applauded as Bob acted his several parts in "A Fight for Love."

The word "several" is used because Bob has to be so versatile in his play. His last includes three personal life.

A Country Gentleman.
A Black Punker.
A Blacksmith.
A Cavalier.
A Priest-rogue.
A Hero.

And always eternally Johnny-on-the-spot.

Just all those parts readily and had the audience with him from the first to the last. He had the house cheering, noble sentiments to express and he had them agree and forgive a horse—just to be a boy on an awning and the house cheering and applauding him. When he strove into the theatre, the audience was so full of cheering and shouting that the house cheered again.

Like Jimmy Hyde.

FRIENDS PROPOSE LASTING MEMORIAL TO LATE MAYOR COLLINS

MRS. PATRICK A. COLLINS, WIDOW OF LATE MAYOR, ENTERING CARRIAGE AT HOLYHOOD CEMETERY AFTER THE BURIAL IN THE PRESENCE OF A SYMPATHETIC MULTITUDE

Movement to Perpetuate His Inspiring Life and Good Works Meets With Cordial Support From Prominent Business Men of Boston.

Now that all that is partly of Mayor Patrick A. Collins has been laid to rest, the most prominent men of Boston came forward with the proposition that a lasting memorial be erected to the memory of their honored leader a memorial that will perpetuate his spirit and deeds.

Servicing thousands were at the funeral service in the cathedral of the Holy Cross, and thousands followed the cortege to the grave in Holyhood Cemetery, in Brookline. Washington street was packed with a mob of men, women and children who wished to attend the service in the big edifice, and hundreds were turned away.

The suggestion that a memorial be erected to the memory of Mayor Collins met with cordial consideration and hearty commendation from the business men of Boston. Many of them, driving through the City, the Mayor had been the recipient of their warmest regards, and his heart swelled with gratitude to them for the sympathy and support which he had received from them.

It is suggested that the memorial be a bronze statue of Mayor Collins, standing on a pedestal, and that the statue be placed in the city square, in front of the City Hall.

PRICE UP AGAIN AS WINTER COMES

46 Per Cent. Dividend This Year; $18,000,000 Rockefeller's Share.

NEW YORK, Sept. 18.—The Standard Oil Company, following its action last week, has again advanced the price of oil.

The new schedule is as follows: Ohio test oil, 84 cents a gallon; water white Ohio State test oil, 84 cents a gallon; light oil, 175 cents, 104 cents; kerosene, 11 cents; denatured motor gasoline, 12 cents; gasoline, 74 to 76 cents, 14 cents. These prices represent an advance of about one-half cent a gallon all around. Export prices have been similarly increased.

The general Wall Street explanation of the increase is that the public is to pay the cost of the great oil fight in Kansas.

At the office of the Standard Oil Company, 20 Broad street, a representative of the company said that there is an increased demand for oil about owing to the reduction of the output in the States, the result of the upping there.

There has been a great falling off in the Pennsylvania production and it is the great factor of these odds, said the representative to invade Kansas. Last month the price of Pennsylvania oil alone advanced was reduced about 100 cents a barrel.

MAJOR SCORES SALEM POLICE IN LIQUOR FIGHT

Force Hears from Chief Executive, City Marshal and Several Aldermen.

SALEM, Sept. 18.—The Mayor, Board of Aldermen, City Marshal and the police have had a heart to heart meeting at the police station on the liquor question.

Mayor Peterson spoke about the reports of non-enforcement of the liquor law, and the effect that the police feel that they will not be backed up by the Mayor and the city government in the enforcement of the law.

He also referred to the severe criticism made upon the department by the papers and the citizens generally, saying that he knew that if this condition did last there was something wrong somewhere.

The Mayor asked if any politician had ever been refused a warrant by the City Marshal, giving no reply. He told them that it was their duty to report to the City Marshal all violations of the law, and assured them that the marshal would give them the best of his cooperation.

BEGIN TO-DAY TO READ THIS FASCINATING STORY OF A LOWELL, MILL LAD

"CONVICT 99" The Story of an Irish-American Persecuted in an English Prison "CONVICT 99"

Synopsis of Preceding Chapters

LANCELOT CRAIG, once a poor Lowell mill hand, had now the trusted confidence of Christopher Lucas, the rich London merchant, and beautiful Geraldine Lucas, his daughter, the night of the ball at Foston Court. A typical young Irish-American, whose only Irish pluck and perseverance had carried him to the front, he was a man who might at the heart of any woman.

The next evening, when he called to learn his fate, he read the secret in her eyes and he told the story of his boyhood life in the Massachusetts mill town. With the blessing of Mr. Lucas, and the rich merchant's promise to make him partner in the firm, the young man left Foston Court with a light heart, and thought of the white life of the land he was about to enter.

At his trial, when he was charged with the murder of Christopher Lucas, he was found guilty. He was sentenced to the gallows, but he was not hanged. He was sent to the prison, and he was there for a long time.

having taken the bath with which the crime was committed and deliberately made the statement to keep him from discovering the fact that the prison was not a prison. Even Mr. Lucas was forced to admit that he had been deceived. The evidence of Christopher Lucas, who was found guilty, was not enough to make him a convict. He was sent to the prison, and he was there for a long time.

CHAPTER IV—Continued

It was not until he had been in the prison for a long time that he was able to get out. He was sent to the prison, and he was there for a long time. He was sent to the prison, and he was there for a long time.

Agony of Suspense

The correspondence of the date of the last communication with that of the last of the landlady's was a mere coincidence. In the second place, was it at all probable that he had been in the prison for a long time?

Sentence of Death

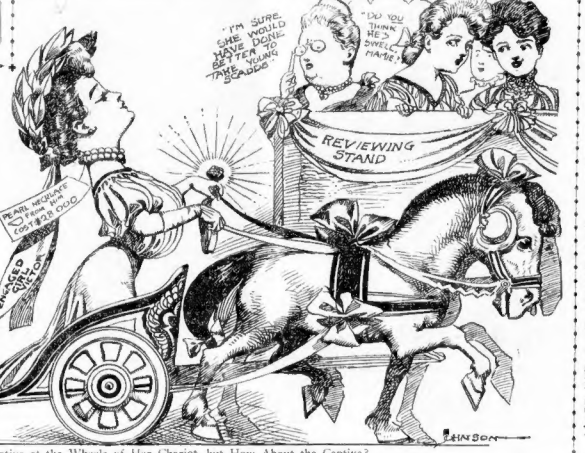

Then, when the judge had asked Lucas for the usual question as to whether he had anything to say in his defense, he had said nothing. He had said nothing, and he had said nothing.

CHAPTER V

In the Shadow of Death

It was not until he had been in the prison for a long time that he was able to get out. He was sent to the prison, and he was there for a long time.

Ten Commandments for Engaged Young Women

She May Enjoy Parading the Captive at the Wheels of Her Chariot, but How About the Captive?

BY DOROTHY DIX

The third commandment for the engaged girl is this: Don't try to show off your power over your fiancé.

THE first lesson that a girl engaged to a man should learn is that she is not a queen. She is not a queen, and she is not a queen. She is not a queen, and she is not a queen.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

By Beatrice Fairfax

It's Well to Bear in Mind That in the Long Run Husbands Are Better Than Beaux

IT'S, it's better to have one husband and no admirers than half a dozen admirers and no husband. It's better to have one husband and no admirers than half a dozen admirers and no husband.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

A girl who is engaged to a man should not try to show off her power over him. She should not try to show off her power over him, and she should not try to show off her power over him.

THE ETERNAL FEMINE

CONCEITED

"I'm sorry you're going back to the city so soon, Mr. Vance."

"Yes, I suppose you are; but then, you see, the city girl will be glad."

A LUCKY GIRL

"They say she was engaged to a man at one time this summer. Just think of it!"

"Wonderful! Why, there weren't many men at the summer resort I visited."

THE USUAL WAY

"Isn't it too bad that the automobile should break down just when you're wanted to go out?"

"Well, it might be worse. Suppose it had broken down just when we wanted to come back."

HARPER AGAIN UNDER KNIFE

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—President Harper of Chicago University has been forced to submit to another operation, which was performed at his home on Sunday.

Details of the operation were kept secret by the physicians. President Harper's refusal to give up his administrative and teaching work has been viewed as the cause of his gradually weakening condition.

It has been announced at his office that he will not attempt to continue his work for at least a month.

No cocoa equals Lowney's in strength. Some are blacker — colored chemically — but inferior in real strength. Lowney's Cocoa is not loaded with ground cocoa-

It consists of nothing but the choicest cocoa beans ground to flour fineness. The result is the most delicious, purest and finest flavored cocoa possible. Such cocoa as Lowney's, if made abroad and duties paid, would cost double the Lowney price.
